GCH Retail (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd (as a Giant Hypermarket) is a hypermarket and retail chain in Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei,[1] Indonesia, Cambodia[2] and previously Vietnam. In 2016, Giant was the largest supermarket chain in Malaysia. [4] History Giant was founded in 1944 as a small grocery store in Kuala Lumpur and expanded to open the Teng Minimarket Centre in Bangsar in 1974. [5] In 1999, Dairy Farm International Holdings bought a 90% stake in the chain, with the Teng family preserving the balance. [6] By 2003, the chain holding company had changed its name to Dairy Farm Giant Retail Sdn Bhd and the chain had eight Giant hypermarkets and 10 supermarkets, as well as three Cold Storage supermarkets. Today the company operates as a subsidiary of Dairy Farm International Holdings Limited and the name has been changed to GCH Retail (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd.[7] GCH Retail is 30%-owned by Syarikat Pesaka Antah Sdn Bhd – a company controlled by the sembilan royal family and a balance of 70% of DFI Mauritius Ltd.[8][9] Downsizing In 2019, has closed at least six stores in Malaysian operations. It consists of 2 hypermarkets & 2 Cold Storage stores in Selangor, 1 each in Kedah, Perak, and Kuala Lumpur. A similar resunding has been noted in Singapore, with the closure of two stores in Bukit Panjang and Jalan Tenteram on the Whampoa estate and its VivoCity hypermarket in 2019. Diversification In February 2018, the group divested its 100% stake in Asia Investment Supermarket Trading Co. Ltd. (AISTC), which operates a hypermarket in Vietnam to Auchan Retail Vietnam, for a net cash inflow of USD 6.4 million. [12] As such, the group has exited supermarkets and hypermarkets in Vietnam. [13] [14] Rebranding in the singapore giant's new logo on September 24, 2020, Giant Singapore announced that it would rebrand to introduce new logos and new features to its stores. Prices of daily essentials will also be reduced by 20% on average over six months following the prices in order to support Singaporeans during the COVID-19 pandemic. More information about Giant View all giant giant stores in Johor Bahru - Promotions, vouchers and catalogs JAKARTA - PT Hero Supermarket (HERO) or Hero Group, which has Hero Supermarket and Giant business units will adjust its operating hours from Wednesday, April 1, 2020. This was done in an effort to limit the spread of COVID-19 and to meet the government's call for working hours. Hero Supermarket and Giant in Indonesia will be present to serve customers from 09:00 WIB to 21:00 WIB, except in regions that have received direct appeal from the regional government, the store will comply with operating rules in accordance with the regulations. Diky Risbianto, Head of Communications & Government Relations, said: Customer safety and wellbeing is our top priority and Hero Group is committed to serving customers the best they can in times of challenges like this. Adjusting operating hours will allow us to continue to meet the basic needs of our customers in a safe and secure environment and allow us to maintain the health of our employees, who are important pillars of our business. HERO Group will inspect and clean products in the sales area and sterilize the entire store facility before opening at new operating hours throughout Giant and Hero Supermarkets. This adjustment of operating hours allows Hero Supermarkets and Giant to ensure the availability of goods in the store, as well as providing opportunities for employees to prepare for services with more fit conditions. (LM) CORONAVIRUS | Major hypermarket and supermarket chains across the country have adjusted their operating hours throughout the movement control period to allow until March 31.In notices issued to their customers, Giant, Tesco Malaysia, Aeon Big and Aeon announced that most of their stores will be closed by 8.31pm tomorrow. On the east coast, its Kuantan outlet closes at 6:30 p.m., while three stores in Terengganu and one in Kelantan close at 5:30 p.m. The giant website also listed a full list of opening hours for all 49 stores, from 8am to 11am. As for Tesco, its Paradigm Mall outlets will be open from 11am to 8pm, while its stores in Kota Bahru, Perak, Melaka and Johor will open their doors earlier from 7am and close at 7pm. Three of its stores - Tesco's Jenjarom, Wangsa Walk and IOI City Mall - are open from 10am to 8pm, while its remaining stores nationwide will open from 8am to 8pm. For Aeon Big, two of its stores in Falim, Ipoh and Kluang, Johor, will be open from 7am to 7pm. The Aeon Big drawer is open in Kuantana 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; 3 Damansara v Jaya Petal (10am-8pm); and Suteru Utama in Johor Bar (10am-7pm). The rest of the Aeon Big stores are open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Other retailers with temporary new opening hours include 33 Aeon supermarket chains, four Aeon Neighbour stores and six Aeon MaxValu Prime stores. Meanwhile, local department store chain 99 Speed Mart has announced its new operating hours from 8am to 8pm, starting yesterday until March 31. Similarly, Japanese convenience store Family Mart announced it had cut its 24-hour operations between 6am and midnight between March 21 and March 31. Since the MCO was enforced last Wednesday, the government, local authorities and major retailers have warned the public against panic buying basic household goods. The measures being enforced include only allowing one person from one household to go out and buy the necessary supplies, which prevents the necessary circumstances.
